Dear Don:

Subject: 25X1A9a Assignment
Change

25X1A6a

I appreciate your letter of 5 March 1959 in which you offer to accept a two year tour of duty as an electronic specialist at the [REDACTED]. However, this assignment has already been committed, and I regret that this rules out the possibility of assigning you to the position.

It occurs to me that assignment to [REDACTED] at the 25X1A6a end of your present tour may work to your advantage in that it permits you to be on hand to work out any problems relating to your house, and in addition would not cause your family to be separated.

You may advise your [REDACTED] of changes in your travel plans and he will make the necessary arrangements via teletype with the Administrative Officer.

Sincerely,

25X1A9a

Chief, [REDACTED] 25X1A8a
